North Milam Collects $6,000, Appeals For Deadline Donations

By Frank M. Luecke

It has been unusual weather this week . . . . . rain and fog. Surprisingly enough, when the fog or haze lifted one day this week, out came the sun.

As that famous Italian aria says, "O Sol Mio," (meaning "Oh, My Sun," I think) A nunspoken cry seems to rise above the Cameron roof tops when the sun does come out. Like we said, rain and fog are unusual in Milam County these days.

SALESMANSHIP—A lot of national firms employing salesmen are calling for more and more effort to keep sales and production up. The push has been instrumental, we think, in stirring the economy from its doldrums more quickly than expected.

All that aside, we came across an anecdote this week attributed to Confusius or to other Chinese proverb makers. The proverb in question applies to our discussion on salesmanship. I'm sure salesmen have heard similar advice in a less subtle dialect.

It says:

"CHINESE PROVERB — Salesman who covers chair instead of territory always remain on bottom."

99-99-99

Another bit of advice, less amusing perhaps but certainly true, is a comment passed on by businessman H. H. Stedman. Quoting an insurance executive, Mr. Stedman said:

"The price of success in salesmanship, as in everything else, is hard work. This price has never been reduced. You cannot get it wholesale."

There's no argument there.

99-99-99

The invitation is always out for your favorite anecdotes and jokes or interesting personal experiences. We can use them.

It is a demanding task to try to be interesting, amusing and once-in-a-while hilarious each week. News events of unusual or amusing turns about Milam County and Cameron are most interesting to you.

Help us find them, won't you?

Yoemen Will Invade Hearne In Final Tilt

Ten seniors will play their last grid contest for Yoe High School Friday night when the Yoemen meet an underdog Hearne eleven at Eagle Field.

Kickoff time will be 8 p.m. at Hearne.

Hearne will be shooting for its first 18-AA district win against favored Cameron. The Eagles have fallen before Rosebud, Belton and Rogers in conference play.

Meanwhile, the Yoemen, completely recouped from injuries after an open date last week, will be shooting for their third conference win. Their only district blemish was a 0-0 tie lost to Belton on penetrations.

Coach Jim Speer told The Herald that the Yoemen are up for the game and should display another good offensive game. The Yoemen ran away from an outmanned Rogers team two weeks ago, 36-8.

At present, the Yoemen can settle only for second place in the district whether they win or lose the Hearne Contest. Under Interscholastic rules, the Belton Tigers defeated the Yoemen on penetration in the October meeting of the two 18-AA powers.

Hearne will field a light starting lineup averaging about 160 pounds through the line up.

Cameron's lineup will find halfback Carroll Fikes ready for full-time play after limited service the past three weeks. Only Yoemen out for the season is sophomore Ed Liarman, who suffered a severe neck injury in the Bellville game.

Seniors donning the maroon and gray for the final 1958 game are: Jesse Kirk, Archie Mraz, Allen Dodson, John Wayne Josey, Roger Terry, Paul Young, Raymond and Johnny Tepera, George Zarosky and Joe Gerick.

Christmas Decorations Too . . .

Santa Pal Project To Begin

Cameron Jaycees Monday night formulated plans for the third annual Santa Pals project and downtown Christmas decorating program.

Work is scheduled to begin on toy donations as soon as collections are started in Santa Pal barrels to be placed at the downtown corner opposite the Cameron Postoffice in front of White's Auto Store.

President Bill Crockett said that toys will be collected in the Santa Pal barrels and from contributors holding toys for pickup.

Jaycees and other volunteer workers will repair, repaint and direct the toys to the children of needy families before Christmas, December 25.

Christmas Decorations

The local civic club also outlined plans to erect Christmas decorations including some new decorations designed by Jayee workers.

Work was also scheduled to erect the Welcome to Cameron signs at three city limits sites around Cameron.

Don Humble, Santa Pal project chairman, said a screening committee will check mail requests for names of families actually unable to provide a Christmas for their children.

Last year about 200 underprivileged Cameron and Milam County youngsters received a variety of Christmas toys through the Santa Pals project ranging from auto toys to bicycles.

Humble noted that anyone wishing to make cash donations to the Santa Pals may send their contribution to "Santa Pal," in care of The Cameron Herald.

To Pick Up Toys

Anyone having toys for the project can call Humble, the chairman said. The toys will be picked up by Jaycee workers.

Crockett said that Jaycees are planning to erect new and used downtown decorations by December 5, time of Santa's first visit in the senior Chamber's Christmas parade.

The Santa Pal barrels will be clearly marked and have lids to keep contributed toys from being damaged by weather, Crockett said.

Jaycees also considered additional Christmas decoration plans including some Yuletide streamers throughout the downtown area.

Humble said requests for Santa Pal gifts should state the name of the child or children, their address and ages.

He asked that contributions include, if possible, wheeled toys that could be repaired.

Planning Begins On Quarterback Club Grid Dinner

Plans are underway for the annual Quarterback Club football banquet honoring the 1958 grid Yoemen, according to Charlie Burke, Cameron Quarterback Club president.

The tentative date has been set for December 15, James T. Terry, secretary of the club said today.

Burke urged all club members to attend the final meeting before the banquet 7 p.m. Monday night at Ada Henderson Cafeteria.

A barbecue dinner will be served to Quarterback Club members, school officials, coaches and football players.

Terry said the movies of the Hearne-Cameron game will also be shown.

Burke said the annual football banquet would honor all Yoeman gridders in December.

"I hope that we can anticipate a record turnout to honor the 1958 edition of the Yoemen," Burke said.

No speaker has yet been scheduled for the banquet and the banquet site has not been named.

New Chamber Manager

C of C Hires Moseley

Richard W. Moseley, Cameron businessman and civic leader, has accepted the position as manager of the Cameron Chamber of Commerce, according to Chamber President Hilliard Thomas.

A former assistant manager of the Shreveport, La., chamber of commerce, Moseley assumed his duties immediately, Thomas said.

The parttime position was offered Moseley by the Chamber board of directors following a special meeting two weeks ago.

Mrs. Jan Speer, office secretary manager, will vacate her position November 15.

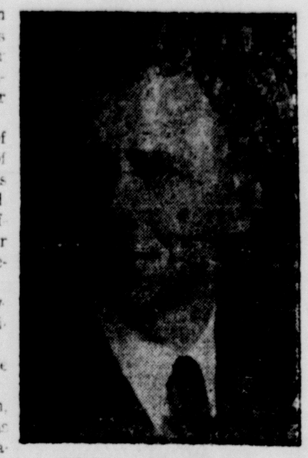
Moseley will continue to operate his downtown variety store.

Prior to coming to Cameron, Moseley served with the Texas Manufacturers Association after about seven years with the Shreveport Chamber.

He entered the chamber of commerce field as a professional in 1939 when he became manager of the membership and finance department of the Shreveport Chamber.

Moseley served in a number of departments in the Louisiana city's chamber, including trade promotion, publicity, retail merchants division, legislative and new industry.

He was assistant chamber manager there when he resigned his post to become affiliated with the Texas Manufacturers Association in 1947. He remained with TMA until 1949 when he went into the variety store business in Cameron.



Richard W. Moseley

His chamber experience was interrupted by service during World War II in the Navy.

Drive To End Saturday Night, Chairman Says

The North Milam County United Fund, extended last week to November 15, this week had collected about $6,000 in pledges and donations, according to Don Humble, drive chairman.

E. O. Schiller, Jr., Cameron, president of the North Milam Fund Board, called for extra efforts during the next few days to make final contacts for both business and individual contributions and to turn in pledges and contributions to Humble.

He said that Mrs. Lyle McDermott, chairman of the house-to-house drive, issued a final appeal to North Milam drive workers to complete their calls and turn in contributions.

Some To Report

Humble noted that a number of communities had not reported contributions and pledges for the seven-agency drive.

Workers are pusning for the $42,650 goal established for the 1958 fund year.

Some special gifts pledge cards and a number of personal pledge cards are yet to be turned in, Humble said. He asked that reports be completed by Monday.

Participating agencies in the North Milam Fund are: Salvation Army, North Milam Charities, Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Heart Fund and Library fund.

Officials noted that the South Milam County fund drive centering in Rockdale went over their goal of $14,869.

Time to Pledge

"There is ample time to make your pledge," Schiller advised contributors. "Consider the value of giving once to seven agencies with your pledge. It can be paid quarterly through your bank," he said.

Workers in 14 North Milam communities are under the direction of eight district chairmen.

The drive began October 1.

200 Attend Dinner, Hear Belton Mayor

A crowd of 200 heard Belton Mayor Roy Sandeford Tuesday urge a return to Americanism in a Veterans Day speech at Simon-George Hall.

The American Legion dinner was attended by members of the Lions, Rotary and Kiwanis civic clubs, Gold Star mothers and families and members of the Cameron Legion post.

Sandeford, a former state senator from Belton, was introduced by Cameron Mayor Bassel Wilson. The mayor and city councilmen were guests of the Legion along with Gold Star family members.

"Cost of Freedom"

"This day recognizes the cost of keeping freedom," Sandeford said. "The fallen are silent testimony that the brave are the only people who deserve to be free."

Sandeford issued a challenge to Americans for their return to Americanism, fighting the "trend of softness to wrong doing."

He labeled the attitude toward Communism a dangerous threat to the American way of life which is "a double-edged threat to the things we have fought for in two world wars and a Korean police action."

"A challenge is facing America today", Sandeford emphasied. "a challenge demanding us to over come the apathy of the majority concerning our free way of life."

Men Born Free

Sandeford noted that "men are born free with certain inalienable rights" and these rights must be preserved by a strong spirit of pride in America.

Master of Ceremonies Wayne Wieser welcomed the November 11 group to the dinner. The Rev. Ernest Davis, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Cameron, gave the invocation and benediction.

TEXAS CHAMPIONS OF FREEDOM

JUDGE ROY BEAN

Defender of Liberty and Justice for All

Judge Roy Bean, Texan by choice and famous as "Law West of the Pecos," not only believed in and fought for freedom..he lived it, ignored with magnificent unconcern the conventionalities of his times..and dealt out considerable measures of liberty to his fellow citizens when he had the power to do so. Originally a Kentuckian, he drifted West to fill several adventurous and romantic years..with duels, jails, escapes, prosperity, and service as a Southern irregular in New Mexico during the Civil War. Then..Texas, as a freighter, butcher, wood contractor, saloon keeper in San Antonio. There his home neighborhood on Flores Street is still sometimes called "Beanville." His schemes for raising money, winning lawsuits and avoiding payment of rent gave rise to a wealth of legend. In 1882 financial and domestic difficulties indicated a new base of operations..elsewhere. Bean departed westward, to follow the grading camps of the Sunset Railroad builders with a profitable tent saloon. Near Vinegaroon, across the Pecos, he settled down..where he later named a small town Langtry and made it famous. As Langtry's Justice of the Peace, he adopted the title of "Law West of the Pecos"..and made the title stick.

Today Texans still demand and get their right to choose the way they want to live. In this vigorous and freedom-minded homeland.."Beer Belongs" and this is why the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of Texans, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing Self-Regulation program.

TIPS ON BUYING HAMS

Hams Are Sold Several Ways. You Can Buy: Whole Ham, Shank Half, Butt Half, Center Slices, Center Roast, Butt Portion, Shank Portion

All are good-eating cuts, but they should be priced differently, according to the value of each. Choicest part, of course, is the center. The two parts which are left when the center is removed from a ham are the "Shank Portion" and the "Butt Portion" (sometimes called Shank End and Butt End). These should not be confused with "Half Hams." When you buy a half ham, you are entitled to the full half, with no center slices removed. At Safeway, you always get the full half.

It pays to select the cut which fits your individual needs. The important thing is to be sure you are getting everything you pay for — not, for example paying half ham prcies for the Shank Portion or Butt Portion.

A Living Tribute . . .

Newspaper headlines often blare the miscues and misgivings of teen-age "rumbles" and teen-age crime. It is seldom that we develop the accomplishments of modern-day youth because we see more the threat of maladjustment than the achievement of citizenship.

But one case of heroism on the part of a Cameron teen-ager and a young soldier from Fort Hood outshines all the blotches of youthful misdirection occuring in the Cameron area in months past.

Frank Newton, 42, of Ben Arnold, is a living tribute to the young men who pulled him from his burning automobile one night last week. Had they not braved serious injury, Mr. Newton may have lost his life inside that blazing station wagon.

What causes men to risk their lives to save another? Why would YHS senior Archie Mraz and the unknown Fort Hood GI crash through the windshield of that gas-soaked inferno to save a man they did not know?

Could it be they acted before they considered those dangers? Did they bring Newton to safety before the threat of death was apparent?

It was not a youthful urge to brave injury or death in a burning automobile. No, thrills can be bought more cheaply than that.

We are certain these young men place a high value on human life. Somehow, this does not solund like the teen-agers we read too much about. It might resemble the idealistic knights of old racing to the rescue of a beleaguered unfortunate.

Obviously, this act of heroism stemmed from a high value of life and property deeply woven into the character of these young men. For they had little time to analyze, to weigh their choice, to wait for professional help. The car was burning on a bridge two miles from Cameron late at night.

These total strangers, Mraz and the soldier, knew at once they had no choice. The decision was not theirs. Somewhere in their background of family or school or church, the decision was made for them.

So they pulled a man, unknown to them, from certain death. And they became heroes, not by intent, but by background and real human depth.

These are the kind of young people we like to write about. We feel they represent the millions of youngsters growing up i na maze of social and economic stresses.

They could have stood aside and watched the car burn. But they didn't.

THE LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

A Look At The Election Returns Brings Only Vague Conclusions

Dear editar:

Outside of reading what the political experts and analysts have to say before an election, I guess the next best reading comes from what they have to say after the election.

For example, last week as soon as the returns from the elections around the country came in, the experts rolled up their sleeves and started explaining what had happened and why, and I'll admit they've left me puzzled, although you understand I'm not crediting them with getting me puzzled, I've been that way for years on my own.

One expert said the election results clearly indicated the country is more liberal, another said this isn't true, that he knows of candidates who got elected on the most conservative platform he'd ever heard of.

The main trouble with this is that the pure strains in both parties have about disappeared, mostly cross-breeds left.

And you take all these crosses, like liberal Republicans and conservative Democrats, conservative republicans and liberal Democrats liberal conservatives and conservative liberals, conservative conservatives and liberal liberals, and several who don't know how they got elected, and put them all in the same feed lot in Washington and it's no wonder the Presidency of the United States is considered the most back-breaking job on earth.

If the cattlemen or the horse breeders or hog raisers or dog lovers of this country registered their stock like political parties do, you couldn't tell anymore about what the offpsring would be like than you can about what the next Congress will do.

You take two members from the same party, one with a mandate from the people in his pocket to vote conservative, and the other with a mandate to vote liberal, and turn them loose in Washington and it's about like a football team with two coaches, one sending in word to pass, the other to punt.

Personally, I prefer to run this out here on Little River. Nobody issues me any mandates.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

Legislatures To Face Sales Tax Question

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN, Tex. — It'd be hard to find a Texan who hasn't been involved in a lively discussion recently as to whether the next Legislature should or should not pass a state sales tax or income tax next year.

Most folks are pretty strongly pro or co n~ no lukewarm feelings.

Property taxes are another matter. People may gripe about them, but they don't often get stirred up about them.

But the latest report by the Texas State Tax Study Commission, "Our Property Taxes," underscores the importance of this levy. It is Texas' biggest money-maker for state and local government. In 1958 property taxes will bring in an estimated $629,000,000 to the state and all the various local taxing units.

More interesting, the Tax Commission's study of assessment and collection practices and problems indicates that this figure is probably only a fraction of what is legally due.

Shortage of personnel plus the mountainous difficulties of locating and evaluating all the items involved add up to inequalities and haphazard methods.

Under Texas law, individuals and businesses are supposed to pay property taxes on all real estate -land and buildings. In addition, both businesses and individuals are liable for taxes on all "tangible personal property" -- cars, airplanes, boats, furniture, jewelry, business equipment, fixtures, inventories, etc. Also, on all "intangible personal property" -- money, bonds, stocks, mortgages, etc.

In practice, many of these are just plain ignored by officials and citizens alike. Many cities make no effort to collect property taxes on cars. As to money, the Commission report observes, "If money in the bank were taxed on January 1, relatively few persons or businesses would have any money on deposit that day."

In other areas where more vigorous efforts at collection are made, results are spotty. Researchers found that the same piece of property would net widely varying tax bills in different counties. On one example the range was from $616 in Harris County to $1,132 in Travis County.

They also found that some people claim homestead exemptions for more than one house. At $3,000 each, these add up to unknown thousands in untaxed value.

Exemptions plus low assessments take a big bite from theoretically possible tax collections. In a study of 3,037 house sales, the found the legal tax due to be $95,019. Actual taxes levied were $2,706, only 3 per cent of what strict application of the law would have produced.

Even though many tax offices are undermanned, Texas has 1,500 assessor-collectors. Sometimes a county, city and school district each will have an official doing the same job in the same area. Result: total cost of property tax administration in Texas exceeds $15,000,000 a year.

CITY RECOMMENDATIONS

Texas League of Municipalities has a series of recommendations -- mostly in regard to money-- for the next legislature.

Topping the list was an appeal to the lawmakers to authorize cities to raise money through some new tax sources. League also asked for thorough study of inequities in the property tax laws and revisio nwhere needed. It suggested that payment of property taxes on motor vehicles be required before issuance of new license tags.

Cities also asked the Legislature to step out of the field of regulating pay, pensions, and hours of city employes. Local citizens have to pay the bill, said the League, and ought to have the say-so.

COST OF HIGH LIVING

It's not the income; it's the outgo that has put Texas treasury in the red, says State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert.

Calvert told Gov. Price Daniel's Executive Study Committee that all tax sources except oil are expected to bring in some $74,646,044 more revenue in the 1960-61 biennium than for 1958-59.

But, he pointed out, inescapable increase of needs in just one area public schools -- will just about absorb all this extra money.

Texas Baptists Name Rev. Russell To Board

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 5 (Spl).— The Rev. Aubrey F. Russell, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Cameron, was named to the BGCT executive board.

The action came on the final day of the Baptist General Convention of Texas annual meeting in San Antonio's Municipal Auditorium.

The 191-member board consists of pastors, laymen and women from over the state. It meets four times a year to conduct the denomination's business between annual sessions and is the convention's most influential orgaization.

There Are Two Sides To Every Coin!

SAVING AND SPENDING are the two sides of every coin (every piece of "folding money", too). Your success in getting ahead financially depends largely on which side you look at FIRST. If you look at the SPENDING side first, you may never get around to the SAVING side at all. Better attend to your saving before you even start spending. Deposit the FIRST dollars out of every pay envelope in your savings account and spend what's left over. It's the only method of saving that really works!

The picture has changed, but the spirit abides . . .

It is a far cry from the scene of the first Thanksgiving to the festive tables in modern, streamlined homes at which we celebrate the holiday today. But, basic to the proper observance of the Day is the same spirit of devout thankfulness for the blessings vouchsafed to us by a Divine Providence . . . the same steadfast dedication to maintaining those freedoms for which the founder of our country braved the hazards of the New World.

Why Santa Would Read....
... The Cameron Herald ...

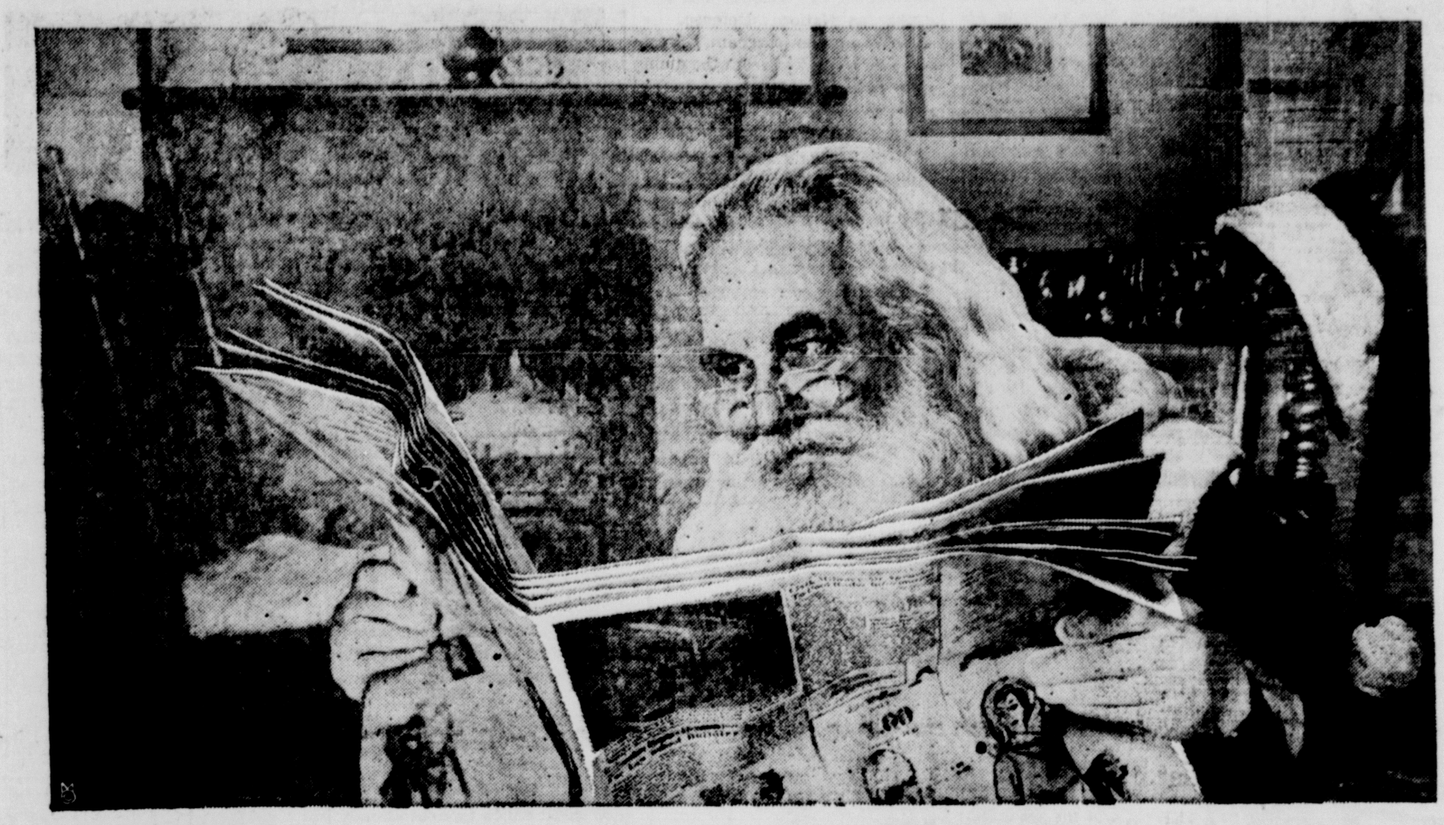
Ol' 'St. Nick makes his annual Christmas trek only once a year, but he likes to bring happiness the year 'round.

Happiness is many things. For children at Christmas it is toys and tinsel and good things to eat. For adults it is the feeling of belonging and knowing what is going on in their hometown and what their friends and relatives are doing.

If Santa were to read The Herald, (and we are sure he does at least once a year) he would know the things that are happening to Cameronites and Milam Countians. He would also know that one of the greatest gifts is keeping people informed. Santa has millions of workers who do that job for him.

But for most of us, keeping informed and informing others of our activities is a real problem. If Santa were a Herald subscriber, (and we wish he were) he would know that week in, week out, the news of all Cameron and Milam County, Texas, were his.

That's why Santa would read The Herald if he lived in Milam County. He would know that he had a year-'round gift of news and features — a letter from and about Cameron and Milam County 52 times a year.



HE KNOWS HIS NEWS — The well-traveled reader above is browsing through his favorite news medium—his newspaper. We don't know what newspaper Santa reads at his North Pole home, but we do know he would read The Herald if he lived in Cameron. Like a well-informed Santa, the well-informed Milam Countian reads his newspaper, The Herald, every week. For so little, he gets the year-'round gift of news and miscellaney that brings his county and county seat within concise view each Thursday.

Short Course Is Set For Dairymen

A common problem of dairymen—disease control—will be thoroughly discussed at the 24th annual Dairyman's Short Course, Dec. 4-5, at Texas A&M College.

The short course program will place special emphasis on problems of mastitis, leptospirosis and brucellosis, but is by no means limited to this phase of dairying. It is designed to served the needs of all dairymen, milk plant fieldmen, commercial feed company fieldmen and others directly or indirectly interested in the future of the dairy industry in Texas.

Speakers include outstanding men in their field. Some of the topics to be discussed are what's ahead for dairymen in 1959, making dairying pay, how the Texas Brucellosis Program is progressing and what the dairy farmer can do to control mastitis.

Additional information concerning the short course may be obtained by writing R. E. Leighton, Department of Dairy Science, Texas A&M College, College Station, Texas.

Results Announced For Small Grain Test

By J. D. Moore

Results of small grain variety trials conducted in Central Texas in 1958 by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and cooperating agencies are now available. Tests of experimental strains and commercial varieties were conducted at the substations at McGregor and Temple and Comfort through cooperation of R. G. Holekamp and the Comfort Seed Growers' Association. The Temple and McGregor tests were supervised by Dr. J. W. Collier and M. J. Morris.

The wheat trials involved 25 commercial varieties and experimental strains including hard and soft winter wheats and durum varieties. The durum wheat varieties were the most producive this season, but a number of experimental strains produced outstanding yields. Of commercial varieties tested, Quanah and Knox produced outstanding yields. Yields during the period 1949-57, show the best wheat variety for this area is Quanah. Durum wheats produce about the same but are not suited to manufacture of bread flour and must be sold for feed.

Twenty-six varieties and strains of oats were tested. The Red Rustproof strains, such as New Nortex, were among the most productive at all stations. Two new commercial varieties, Suregrain and Moregrain from South Carolina, produced the highest yields at Comfort but have been under trial only one year. Over a period of years, New Nortex, Mustang, Alamo and Victorgrain are the most consistent producers in the area. Spring seeding of oats is not recommended, except in emergencies.

Eighteen varieties and strains of barley were tested. New experimental strains were the most productive. Among the commercial varieties tested, Rogers ranked first averaging 49.3 bushels per acre with Cordova a close second averaging 47.6 bushels. During the period 1949-57, Cordova and Texan have produced the highest yields. The variety Rogers appears promising but has been tested only one year.

STAMP OF APPROVAL

All poultry and poultry products which move for sale across State lines after Jan. 1, 1959, must bear a stamp of approval indicating that it has been inspected for wholesomeness by an agent of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

At that time the Poultry Products Inspection Act becomes effective, and the poultry industry will join the meat industry in offering consumers assurance of Federal inspection in all plants processing poultry for interstate commerce.

To qualify for this service, a processing plant must meet a number of established standards for procedure, and labeling.

Any plant which has not already applied for inspection services, should do so as quickly as possible. Though special arrangements have been set up to make the qualification process as fast as possible, some time is required to meet the necessary requirements. The processor must have blueprints of his plant and premises approved, his water supply certified and all labels and chemical compounds used on products okayed.

POULTRY PROBLEM

Poultry flockowners should be on the lookout for cannabilism this season when pullets are being housed. The surest way to combat the trouble is to debeak the birds, but there are practices that will help keep it at a minimum. These are a comfortable, well-ventilated house, plenty of well-distributed feed and water space, no external parasites and feeding highfiber diets which include mash.

New Publication

"Reduce Farm Machinery Costs" is the title of a new Texas Agricultural Extension Service publication. Copies are available from the offices of local county agents or from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas. Ask for MP-231.

Animal Science

The week of December 1-6 has been designated as National Science Week and Govdnor Price Daniel has issued a proclamation to that effect. The week is a part of the 50th anniversary observance of the American Society of Animal Production, an organization of some 3,000 professional workers in the animal production field.

Cotton Marketing Quota Referendum Vote December 15

College Station, Nov. 12—How farmers vote in the cotton marketing quota referendum to be held throughout the Nation's cotton-gowing area on December 15 will determine whether quota penalties will apply, the kind of allotment program in effect, and also the level of price support for 1959-therefore is of vital concern to every cotton grower, says Searcy M. Ferguson, Chairman of the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The marketing quota program will be in operation for next year's crop, the chairman explains, if at least two-thirds of the votes cast in the referendum are in favor of the program. In that case, farm operators will have an opportunity to elect a choice between (A) complying with their "regular" farm allotments—with price support available at not less than 80 per cent of parity for the 1959 crop of upland cotton, or (B) complying with an increased farm allotment 40 per cent larger than the "regular" farm allotfent—with support at a level 15 per cent of parity lower than under the first choice; quota penalties will apply to any cotton produced in excess of the chosen allotment.

If more than one-third of the votes are against quotas, there would be no quota penalties, only the "regular" allotments would be available, and the price support level to eligible growers would drop to 50 per cent of parity.

All farmers who were engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1958 will be eligible to vote in the referendum.

The referendum will be held between the hours of 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Monday, December 15.

25% OF ALL TP&L REVENUE GOES FOR TAXES

Not too many years ago taxes took only a small part of a company's income and one man could often take care of a big company's tax books. In today's industrial economy taxes are heavy and large departments are needed to handle tax records.

A close look at the TP&L ledger shows that, today, taxes represent the largest single expenditure. Yes, 25 cents out of every dollar received from TP&L customers for electric services is returned in the form of city, state and federal taxes.

These taxes benefit in helping pay the cost of street programs and maintenance, municipal buildings and courts, schools and teachers' salaries, public welfare projects and many other community works.

Since 1936, in spite of a 162% increase in taxes and other rising costs of doing business, the average price per kilowatt-hour paid for your residential electricity is 43% less today. As a good taxpaying citizen, TP&L pledges continued support of the communities it serves, as well as increasingly efficient operation to keep the price of its electric service low.

Electricity is the biggest bargain in your family budget. Example: YOU CAN DRY YOUR FAMILY'S CLOTHES ELECTRICALLY FOR ONLY 5c PER LOAD

Outdoors In Texas

New Look Is Taken At Science

By Vern Sanford

All of a sudden science has taken on a new look. Or perhaps we should say — a new look has been taken at science.

Few outdoorsmen realize just how important science is to their outdoor pleasures. Sure, they appreciate the fact that guns are built to perfection, spinning reels are most carefully dsigned, fishing rods are constructed for just the right sensitivity and reflexibility, and even the smallest lure is planned with the greatest care. These facts they realize, as well as the scientific detail that goes into boats and motors.

But I am thinking of the fish and wildlife biologists, the scientists who study the living habits of game and fish.

Were it not for the work of these men, we would find ourselves so far behind in the production of fish and game that all would be about as scarce as the whooping crane(of which there are only 31 left.)

When I was a boy, our lakes and streams were rapidly being "fished out". Many a time we would fish all day and come in only with a few bream. You and I and our children and grandchildren should be thankful that somewhere along the line some far-thinking people came to the realization that in time we might not have plenty of fish and game.

These men went to our colleges and universities and came away with degrees in wildlife management. These biologists began to do some research. They put two and two together for a period of years and came up with an answer that some lovers of the outdoors still will not believe.

Now the biologists tell us that proper land management, careful control of our lakes and streams and reasonable hunting and fishing procedures we not only can increase, but eventually improve our game and fish.

Through the efforts of sportsmen's clubs and a few determined individuals, the Texas Game and Fish Commission now has regulatory authority in some 80 counties in the state. This means that in at least 80 counties, season and bag limits are based upon facts and not upon guess work or the whims of certain individuals.

A visit to some of the wildlife management areas of the state, as well as to some of the ranches that follow conservation practices, is most convincing. The same is true of our lakes and streams, that are constantly being watched over by biologists.

Biologists have learned that you can stock an impoundment with too many fish. Result: poor, small fish. They have learned that the carrying capacity of the land must be respected. As a result of their work we have more and better fish.

Thanks to these scientists Texas is far ahead of many other states in its fish and wildlife management program.

Access to Water

Many states now require a salt water fishing license. Some have had such a license law for a long time. Texas joined the ranks in 1957. Here a license is now required for all fishermen outside their home counties, and for all persons fishing with a rod and reel wherever they fish, if they are between the ages of 17 and 65.

As a result of this license law there is a great deal of exploratory work going on along the Texas coast. The Game and Fish Commission plans to provide several passes through coastal islands and peninsulas, to improve marine fishing conditions.

While the state is doing this, there also is much to be done by the individual counties in providing access to water. There is no better fishing to be found anywhere than off the Texas coast. In many places, however, it is hard to get to because the shoreline has been commercialized or industrialized.

Some counties and the municipal governments in some towns provide free launching ramps. From Port Arthur to Port Isabel, however, there is need for many more than now exist.

Of couse the need for launching ramps is evident on every inland body of water too. Most of the ramps on our lakes and streams are inadequate and in some instances unsafe. With thousands of additional boats this year, many owners will find it difficult to reach a good launching ramp. It will be a question of who gets there first.

If your locality, how about talking it over with the Chamber of Commerce and get the business men of the city behind the movement. They can be a big help. Point out to them that the more accessible you make the lakes and rivers the more visitors (and customers) your town will have.

Get Set Now

How about your boat? It won't be long until Spring will be rolling around. Even now there is fine fishing in all Texas waters. The old boat should have a new coat of paint. It won't take but a few days to dry dock it, scrape the slime off the bottom and do a real cleanup job.

Your local dealer will be glad to tell you what kind of paint to use and may even help you get it out of the water. If you are looking forward to a summer of real boating pleasure, then get the boat ready.

You'd be surprised at the number of new boat sales that are being made right now.

Story Of Cameron Business Leadership

Say It With Flowers

Glass, The Florist Offers Expert Service

When you say it with flowers in Cameron and Rosebud, Glass the Florist says it best.

After 27 years in the wholesale and retail business, there is little doubt about the statement above. In fact two generations of Glass, the Florists, make floral service and selection a pleasure and delight regardless of the occasion.

Co-owners Mr. and Mrs. Lester Glass and son, Donald Glass, present an array of flowers for that special occasion that makes a remembrance from Glass, the Florist something really special.

Donald Glass points out that potted plants, sprays, corsages, bouquets, cut flowers and any other floral requirement are available in a spectrum of selections.

Greenhouse Fresh

He emphasizes that flowers by Glass are greenhouse fresh to their customers. Glass, the Florist grows most of their flowers in their own local greenhouses.

Freshly picked, the flowers are beautifully arranged by the skilled floral decorators at Glass, the Florist. And they are delivered in fast, efficient manner by one of five trucks working in Cameron and a truck in Rosebud, he points out.

"We consider the floral occasion in recommending types of flowers and their arrangement to our customers. We strive for the personal touch that flowers convey when they are given as a gift or special remembrance."

Glass's floral arrangements for funerals are done with dignity and grace befitting the need, Glass says. And equal care is devoted to flower and scenic arrangements for weddings and parties.

"Ask about our floral service for weddings," Glass recommends. "We assure you that you will receive the recommendations that 27 years of experience has proven will give a really beautiful weddings. Hydrangeas, mums, roses, name only a few ase available most of the year or in season for Glass customers.

Glass, the Florist is also a member of Florist Telegraph Delivery Association, a world-wide group of outstanding florists that can send flowers to any point of the world by telegraph order.

"We try not to overlook any service that flowers properly grown, arranged and delivered should give," he continues. "There is something special about getting a gift of flowers continuous attention by the florist makes receiving flowers an occasion to remember."

Rockdale Upsets Taylor 14-6 In Surprise Show

The Rockdale Tigers played their best game of the season Friday night in Taylor fighting all the way for a 14-6 win from the Ducks in one of the biggest upsets in Central Texas.

Rockdale defeated by Cameron 6-0 early in the season lacks only a small step in taking district championship. If they win against Caldwell next week the glory is all theirs.

Four thousand fans saw Taylor score in the first quarter after only 2 minutes, 45 seconds. Quarterback Gene Love climaxed a 28 yard drive diving over from the one, after Donnie Smith had picked up 25 yards in 3 attempts.

Rockdale took charge on the 13 as the first period ended and drove 87 yards in five plays, with the aid of a 66 yard pass from Rhodes to Bartlett. Bartlett carried over from the nine tying the game at 6-6.

The half ended on an attempted 6 inch lunge by Love that failed.

Rockdale started their touchdown drive on the 42 with 7 and a half minutes left in the game. In 7 plays the ball was carried to the 3 where Barlett sliced off tackle for the score.

Rockdales defense play was the sparkling standout of the game and the key to the Tiger win. Hal Stanislaw, Bobby Bounds, Bruce Holliman and Kubiak were standouts plaing the entire game without rest however it took 11 boys teamed together to stop the Taylor offense.

Cameron will be shooting for its sixth victory toward a 6—2—2 season.

SW Conference Sports

Tom Murray's Column

MUCH OF Jess Neely's reputation at Rice has been built on football upsets of startling dimension. Take a gander at the numerous occasions his owls have clipped favored Texas teams.

That 34-7 smash of Darrel Royal's Longhorns three weeks ago was no more implausible than Rice's 7-6 vicotry over the nation's No. 1 rated Texas Aggies last fall.

Why do Neeley teams accomplish such feats? Is it because he lulls the conference to sleep bydelulls the conference to sleep by deliberately bringing his Owls along slowly? He would probably snort at that reasoning.

It might be that for some strange reason the Owls get less publicity from Houston papers than the Texas Aggies 90 miles away. Perhaps their envy cranks up a desire the wily Neeley helps along strategically.

By avoiding as much fanfare as possible, Jess keeps his lads relatively unspoiled, hungry for recognition that only combat brings.

At any rate, the Owls find themselves in a strange predicament Saturday afternoon when the Texas Aggies come calling -- They are favored.

This time the inconsistent Aggies own all of the psychological advantage. Jim Myers' lads are capable of beating Rice and with a crazed desire such as the Owls used on them a year ago, could do some upsetting on their own.

The giddy Gulf Coast sports fan gets another thriller at Houston. with TCU and Baylor to follow on successive Saturdays.

BAYLOR enjoys the week end off while Texas attempts to derail T. C. U. in a Fort Worth thriller and 'Southern Merideth' U. heads into the hills to battle Arkansas. . . . . Guesses for the week end: Texas Aggies 21, Rice 20; Texas 20, T. C. U. 14 and S. M. U. 28, Arkansas 21 .... How about Navasotta's B-Squad nameu The big boys are Rattlers, so the reserves are known as the Fangs . Jack Hathorn, former Port Neches All Stater, currently quarterbacks the Stephen F. Austin Lumberjacks .. .... Did you know that El Campo and Wharton tangle annually in one of the oldest and most bitter Texas schoolboy football rivalries? Sports Editor, dug up evidence that the 6-6 tie early in the year represented the 48th consecutive year the Ricebirds and Tigers have met. Jimmy Hejl, playing center on the Texas frosh team, was forced to take a bigger burden when Baytown's Bill Hardegree suffered a broken ankle in the S.M.U. victory. The former Lamar Consolidated tackle is considered a good prospect at UT .. Donnie Smith, Taylor's greatest halfback since Dick Moegle, will not follow the former All-America to Rice. His father is an ex-T.C.U. star . Kenedy's Bobby Goff, one of A&M's wartime heroes, is one of the states bright young coaches at Port Lavaca .. Bay City Quarterback Marvin Tristynek plays defensive tackle in one of the state's unique switches. Coach Don Haley likes his passing arm. His older brother, Richard, is a holdout guard at Texas .... Bowling, sweeping the country, will get a new $100,000 home at Angleton . Wendell Swann Lockhart football coach, at one time attended Tyler Junior College to play football under Floyd Wagstaff, but returned to North Texas to finish .... Talk about repetition. Two schools, using an unusual name are Bay City and Mexia, both known as Black Cats.

Story Compares Cost Of Power Projects, Siebman Points Out

A recent story in the Dallas Morning News points up the comparable cost factors of federal and private power projects in East Texas, Henry Siebman, manager of Texas Power & Light, Cameron, noted this week.

Robert M. Hayes, writing for The News, says that the federal McGee Bend Dam hydroelectric plant has been in the planning stage for 20 years.

Meanwhile, the Stryker Creek steam-generating plant in Cherokee County, built by TP&L, was dedicated in October after four years of construction time.

Hayes writes that the McGee Bend project has been entangled in political maneuvering, law suits and split decisions. The federal project will be built at an estimated $50 million, including $22 million for the hydroelectric unit. He says the ultimate cost is expected to go higher.

The stryker dam was started in 1954 after TP&L executives and Cherokee-Angelina Countians met, Hayes writes.

"A water district was formed and revenue bonds in the amount of $2,100,000 were sold," the story says.

Hayes concludes by noting the production capacity of the two plants. The federal unit at McGee Bend will produce "45,000 kw of intermittant power while the Stryker Creek dam will generate 175,000 kw of constant power."

O.J. Thomas Bulldogs Win Over Freeman

The O. J. Thomas Bulldogs ended their home game schedule Saturday night with a thumping 24-0 victory over the Freeman High Yellow Jackets of Caldwell.

The upstart Bulldogs sparked by quarterback Dedridge Hunter's slight-of-hand turned tables on a "Hard-Nosed" Yellow Jacket line to gain an 8-0 advantage in the first quarter with Paul Cavil fleet Lefthalf, William Dickey right half and quarterback Hunter eating up constant gains on the ground and fullback Aaron Spells chipping in with short gains to keep the drive alive.

Behind good blocking from the line hlafback Dickey scored on a seven yard drive through the line. Hunter riding the "T" threw a strike to Ray Freeman right end for 2 points. The Bulldogs scored in its first series of play driving 80 yards for the score.

The Yellow Jacket offense started to roll, moving the ball 60 yards with halfback Pollard scampering the last 25 yards to pay dirt and a touchdown. But the play was called back and a 15 yard penalty for illegal use of hands on offense was assessed against them. At point the Bulldogs defense came to life and sustained this Yellow Jacket drive.

A battle of defense vs. offense took place and lasted through the first half. Beginning the third period halfback Dickey returned the kickoff 25 yards to the 37 yard line. After hitting the line with two plays for short gains the Bulldogs were penalized 5 yards for illegal motion. At this point quarterback Hunter rolled out to his left. picked up blocks from fullback Spells, halfback Cavil and Dickeyleft end Canady and a host of blockers turned the corner and scooted 70 yards into the end zone. But it was called back and the Bulldogs drew a 15 yard penalty for illegal use of hands. This offensive drive bogged down.

The Freeman Yellow Jackets took the ball on the 16 yard line and drove down to the Bulldogs 40 yard line fumbled and a Bulldog recovered. At this point the O. J. Thomas Bulldogs moved 52 yards on the ground with Cavil, Dickey and Hunter eating up yardage and fullback Spells on a brilliant 15 yard sprint to keep the offense rolling on third down and goal. Hunter threw a strike to Ray Freeman for the second touchdown and Paul Cavil plowed over for 2 points.

Riding the strong arm of quarterback Turner, the Freeman Yellow Jackets began to move toward pay dirt driving 50 yards to mid-field. With Captain Albert Bradley leading the charge assisted by Captain Hemphill and putting pressure on the passer William (Shine) Dickey defensive halfback pulls in a Turner Pass and scampers 55 yards, with Robert Washington throwing the first key block and a host of other bone crushing blocks that cleared the way for the final touchdown.

Again Paul Cavil drove in for 2 points.

GIFT SERVICE

Christmas is only a little over a month away, and it's time to start thinking about that Christmas gift list. What could be more practical than an additional telephone for the bedroom or the kitchen. Teenagers appreciate a telephone in their room so that when they make or receive calls they can talk in private.

During the day a phone in the living and working areas of the house is a great convenience.

At night a telephone on the bedside table is perhaps the most convenient of all. It ends feeling your way through a darkened house to answer late hour calls.

Telephones are available in nine beautiful colors. Just call our business office, telephone number 244 and ask about our gift service plan. We can save you hours of time and worry when doing your Christmas shopping.

A NEW FAMILY PLAN

For some time now, railroads and airplanes have been telling about "Family Plans". Well, I recently heard of an older couple who thought up their own "Family Plan" for get-togethers with their married children living out of town.

Since Sunday always seemed the loneliest day without the family around - and because long distance rates are lower all day - they set up a regular Sunday calling schedule for their sons and daughter. On the first Sunday of the month, Bill, the oldest son, calls and puts the whole family on the line; on the second Sunday, it's the middle boy, Ralph. Jane, the only girl (she has a little girl of her own now) calls on the third Sunday. On the fourth Sunday, it's Tom's turn. He's the youngest, and just married.

I didn't learn what happens when a month has five Sundays, but I do know these Sunday calls turn a lonely day into a happy one for the folks back home.

TOUCHDOWNS BY TELEPHONE

Many telephone employees aren't as lucky as I am when it comes to football. Usually - if I can duck all the projects my wife saves up for me to do on Saturday - I can enjoy a game on radio or television.

For other telephone people, football is work, because broadcasts and telecasts, as well as news accounts of the games, are flashed from city to city over telephone company lines.

Here in our part of the country, where there's so much interest in football, it takes a lot of skilled telephone people and a lot of telephone facilities at work to keep fans in touch with what's happening to their favorite teams.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.
